Remember, only you can prevent a bad Home Owners Association Board

Please note that dues through 2008 must be paid in full to be eligible to vote. Dues for 2009 will be presented at the General Meeting. At this point, the board plans to, once again, keep the dues the same for 2009, $150. For those few that wish to pay, the treasurer will gladly accept checks the night of the meeting.

On the next page, you'll find a proxy form. If you cannot attend and wish to proxy your vote to one of the directors or other homeowners, please make sure that your signed proxy form is available to the Directors prior to the meeting.

We'd also like to announce that, once again, our lawyer, Art Foth, will be attending this year's meeting in case you have any questions or concerns. So, even if you do not plan to run for a board position you'll be able to vote on the board, here's what's going on, and voice any questions, comments, or concerns to either the board or Art.

We hope to see you there. The more homeowners attend, the better for our Boston Reserve Homeowners Association.
